MOROS KILLED HOSPITAL MEN.

Manila, March 12.—General Wood declares that in the battle in the crater of Mount Dajo, near Jolo, the Moros used women and children to shield their soldiers in the hand to hand fighting when the Americans stormed up the mountain. The women were dressed in men's clothing, and fought with the utmost desperation.

After the battle Wood claims that many of the Moros feigned death and killed members of the hospital corps who were succoring the wounded.

SUSAN B. ANTHONY DEAD.

Rochester, N. Y., March 12.—Susan B. Anthony is dead.

Susan Brownell Anthony was born at Adams, Massachusetts, on February 15, 1820. She taught school from the time she was fifteen until she was thirty years old, and in 1852 organized the first state women's temperance society. She was active in the anti-slavery agitation, but since the war has devoted herself entirely to the women's suffrage movement, of which she became the most distinguished advocate.
Her activity in this cause has been for many years unceasing, and her writings most voluminous. She was never married.

SENTENCED TO DEATH.

Athens, March 12.—Gerakaris, the slayer of Premier Deliyannis, has been sentenced to death.

Costagiarakis, which is the full name of the man who killed the Greek Premier, was a gambler of Athens who became increased because the police had put a stop to his nefarious business. He shot the Premier, a man well-beloved by the people, on the 29th of May, last year.

DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Guerneville, Cal., March 12.—This town has been practically destroyed by fire.

Guerneville is a little town of possibly fifteen hundred people on the line of the North Pacific Coast railway.

CALIFORNIA RAINSTORM.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 12.—A great rainstorm has visited Southern California and Arizona, doing much damage and practically demoralizing railroad traffic. At Globe, Arizona, the jail was undermined by the flood waters and collapsed, necessitating the removal of the prisoners.

WRECKAGE FROM STEAMER.

Victoria, B. C., March 12.—A lot of wreckage has been washed ashore on Graham Island marked "Steamer Za-pora." The vessel was in the fisheries, and carried a crew of thirty men.

PERISH IN DOING GOOD.

Paris, March 12.—Seventeen rescuers working in the coal mines at Lens have perished.

CHANGING SENTIMENT.

Oliver Goldsmith's "Deserted Village."

Goldsmith in his "Deserted Village," spoke of a certain chapel where those who "went to scoff, remained to pray." So in life one often laughs at what he does not understand, his laugh turns to praise. There were some who doubted the merits of Newbro's "Herpicide," the scalp germicide and hair-dressing; but since they have tried it, they are now among its best friends and strongest advocates. Herpicide kills the germ that eats the hair off at the root, and the hair then grows again. As a hair dressing it is incomparable; try it.
Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Holliater Drug Co., special agents.

There are more Adams-Bagnall en-
